

EIP

EIP recommended in 2014 Chambers & Partners UK

EIP has been ranked as one of the leading intellectual property firms in the UK by the Chambers & Partners 2014 guide.

Chambers said EIP was “A fast-growing firm in both size and reputation that has made great strides since its establishment”.

Partners Jerome Spaargaren and Heather McCann received individual recommendations for the third and fourth years running, respectively. Gary Moss, head of EIP Legal, was mentioned as a notable practitioner for the second year in a row.

The Chambers & Partners rankings are based upon market research and feedback received from clients. To read what the researchers said about EIP, click here.