Legal 500 2020 recognises EIP's prosecution and litigation expertise

The 2020 edition of the Legal 500 has been published, with recommendations for eleven EIP fee-earners.

EIP Legal led by 'very savvy IP litigator' Gary Moss 'hits far, far above its weight' and is comprised of 'experienced and expert IP litigators' who are recognised for medical device, life sciences and mobile telecoms patent disputes. The team also includes recommended lawyers Robert Lundie Smith and Matthew Jones alongside Managing Associate Tom Brazier who is ranked as a Rising Star. The team is 'involved in some of the highest profile IT disputes on both technical and legal issues' and 'the firm has done more than any other to shape the law in FRAND disputes and make the UK the primary forum for such matters.' 'The firm has a forward-thinking mindset, it is great in the details but doesn't forget the big picture either.'

The patents team which includes recommended attorneys Jerome Spaargaren, Heather McCann, Matt Lawman, Laurence Brown and Richard Gordon-Brown 'has a wide variety of robust technical capabilities in the chemistry and biotechnology space'. 'The individuals at EIP are super-smart and detail-oriented...they are easy to speak with and truly listen to the business issues...and are very respectful...'

EIP Brands team led by Claire Lehr with Paula Flutter '...has a lot of experience and is quick and responsive' and 'their counsel is concise, reliable, prompt and, most importantly, always business-focused' with 'their attention to detail has been second to none.'

The Legal 500 rankings are based on feedback from 300,000 clients worldwide, submissions from law firms and interviews with leading private practice lawyers, and a team of researchers who have unrivalled experience in the legal market.
