EIP host One Nucleus BioWednesday on IP valuation

EIP will host a One Nucleus BioWednesday seminar entitled 'The Value of Intellectual Property'.

The event takes place at EIP's London office on 11 June from 6pm and registration is open to all members of the One Nucleus life sciences network.

Speakers include IP valuation expert Andrew Wynn of FTI Consulting, Martin Brassell, the author of a UKIPO-commissioned report into the role of IP in facilitating business finance, and Matt Lawman, partner at EIP who will explain the importance of aligning a company's business and IP strategies.
