Patentise website nominated for prestigious award

EIP's Patentise website has been nominated for a coveted Webby Award which recognises excellence on the internet.

Patentise.com has been shortlisted as one of the top five law websites worldwide and will compete against four other websites in two categories - the Webby Award, decided by a judging panel, and the Webby People's Voice Awards, decided by public vote.

The Patentise website is the work of London design agency Iqloo, who also designed the EIP website.

Voting for the People's Voice Awards is open until 24 April and the winner will be announced on 29 April.
