EIP host One Nucleus BioWednesday; Doing Business in the ASEAN Territories

On 26 September EIP will be hosting BioWednesday, a networking event lead by One Nucleus life sciences network. The seminar will focus on doing business in the ASEAN territories, and will include presentations by Ross Hunter, Director, UK-ASEAN Business Council and Karen Taylor, Head of Centre for Health Solutions, Deloitte.

The event will take place in EIP's London office from 6pm-9pm and offers Q&A sessions, drinks, and networking. Andrew Sharples, Partner and head of EIP Life practice group, will be chairing the event.
